

MOMENTUM 2017

PREPARING COLLEGE STUDENTS FOR CAREERS IN PUBLIC ACCOUNTING

Columbia & Jefferson City, Missouri
June 21 – 23, 2017

You've chosen accounting as your preferred field of study. But what do you really know about public accounting, the opportunities that lie ahead and how your personality and leadership skills will help you succeed in an accounting career?

During this unique summer program, Williams-Keepers LLC (WK) will help you gain a better understanding of the dynamic, ever-changing public accounting industry and the characteristics you will need to succeed. While developing networking skills through interaction with members of WK's experienced staff and other program participants, you will learn about the importance of superior client service to WK, your personal leadership style as well as career opportunities. Your takeaways will be knowledge and experiences that can help you make the best decisions as you begin to develop your plans for a career in public accounting.

APPLICATION PROCESS

This program is designed for college students who will have achieved either sophomore, junior or senior class standing at the start of the 2016 – 2017 academic year. Interested applicants should apply no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, March 10, 2017 by submitting an updated résumé and cover letter that expresses interest in the program to momentum@williamskeepers.com.

Applicants will be evaluated based on the quality of their submissions, including information about previous or current leadership activities, academic achievement and involvement in community or extracurricular activities.

In-person interviews for Momentum 2017 will be conducted at WK's Columbia office and final participant selections will be made no later than Friday, March 31, 2017. A detailed agenda will follow.

For additional information, please contact Shawn Barnes, WK's Director of Business Development and Recruiting, at (573) 499-6860 or by email at sbarnes@williamskeepers.com.
